

Dave Hnatiuk of Allied Distributors receives Public School Boards' Association of Alberta award

June 9, 2025 (Calgary, AB) ... Dave Hnatiuk of Allied Distributors has been recognized with the award, Special Contribution to Public Education from the Public School Boards' Association of Alberta (PSBAA).

Melanie Reed-Zukowski, Trustee and Vice Chair of the Grasslands Public Schools nominated Dave due to his continued involvement and sponsorship with the school division. Dave generously supported a new agricultural academy, and supported students involved with the skills competitions, whether it was regional, provincial, national, or international. Dave is seen as a mentor for those considering entering the trades occupations.

Dave Hnatiuk said "we are truly honored to receive this award from the PSBAA. As a small, locally owned business, it means the world to be recognized by our community. Every step of our journey has been fueled by passion, hard work, and the support of incredible customers, partners, and neighbors. This award is not just for us—it's for everyone who has believed in what we do. "

The Public School Boards' Association of Alberta held its annual awards evening at its Spring General Assembly in Calgary. A total of five awards were presented.

The Public School Boards' Association of Alberta (PSBAA) is the voice of public school boards in the province. We believe public schools are the first choice in our communities, where children can go to learn and live the values of democracy together, reflecting our hope, and shaping the future of our communities.
